Denny is amazing.
As a first year teacher I feel this has been the most positive "education" I could receive to support me in being an incredible educator. I feel I have skills to support my students in being successful, responsible in the classroom and in life.

I can't wait to take this course again!!! I am planning on taking it the next time it is offered so I can acquire and apply more skills to being an incredible educator to my students!

I love how this class is not only a reminder to not be hard on ourselves, but to celebrate who we are and to use it in the classroom. The ↑ the ARFF, the more ready to teach effectively = what we want for our students; the ↑ the ARFF for kids to more ready to learn, make mistakes bravely, and learn from them; all in the name of learning up the drive the to want to learn more and be less complacent and/or complaintive.
